Whether you're on a safari in Zimbabwe or attending a business meeting in Peoria, you need travel gear that can keep up with you. CORDURA® Ballistic fabric, the original ballistic weave developed for military body armor, has exceptional strength-to-weight ratio in addition to abrasion and tear resistance. Which means luggage and gear made with CORDURA® Ballistic fabrics aren't just durable; they're easy to lug around. Happy traveling.

CORDURA® Ballistic fabric provides durable performance for a variety of end uses, including workwear, daypacks, luggage, and other travel accessories. For stylish durability and toughness that can take it and come back for more, choose CORDURA® Ballistic fabric. It's as durable as you are.

Products made with CORDURA® Ballistic fabrics feature enhanced tear and abrasion resistance and long-lasting durability.

- Maximum durability as measured by industry standard testing*
- Twice as durable as standard 1680 d nylon
- 1.5 times more resistant to abrasion than comparable luggage fabrics
- 2.5 times more protection against tears than comparable luggage fabrics
- Proven battlefield performance for over thirty years

**when tested against equal weight fabrics*
